DATA PROTECTION POLICY

London School of Ministry Ltd (LSM) committed to a policy of protecting the rights and privacy of individuals, including learners, staff and others, in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) May 2018. The full Policy is available on request. LSM will ensure that the reason for which it collected the data originally is the only reason for which it processes those data, unless the individual is informed of any additional processing before it takes place. The GDPR regulates the processing of personal data, and protects the rights and privacy of all living individuals, for example by giving all individuals who are the subject of personal data a general right of access to the personal data which relates to them. Personal data is information relating to an individual and may be in hard or soft copy (paper/manual files; electronic records; photographs, marketing), also includes any personal information entered on your application form. LSM undertakes not to retain personal data for longer than is necessary to ensure compliance with the legislation, and any other statutory requirements. This means LSM will undertake a regular review of the information held and implement a weeding process.
